Knowing the Value of Change...

Many of us have been practicing contraction for decades, holding a tension-filled body that makes ease and flow seem like a distant dream. How we've been in-formed by our life experiences influences what we perceive and how we react to everything we encounter. The good news is that we can begin to change our way of being, to re-source and re-shape ourselves to meet our challenges with greater peace and purpose. We can move from an anxious holding against negative emotions, physical ailments and work challenges into a spirited engagement with our life experiences through which extraordinary things can happen as we tap into the harmony of life.

Way of the Fertile Soul

The state of being in abundance taps into your "greening power" – embodiment that cultivates peace, happiness and the juicy vitality of freedom, flow, and function that can generate grand outcomes. It's about embracing life from the core of your spiritual being – getting to the point of what matters most... allowing your essence to inhabit every aspect of your life, so you can love and shine through the extraordinary elements of human expression as your well-being and work in the world, with the tools to mend the past, heal the future and effectively manage a deeper destiny and wider journey... a new life path!

Fully alive, fully embodied, embracing each moment completely with each breath—this is your birthright as a human being. If your life is currently offering you something less than this, then come and discover a whole new way of living!

"I celebrate your journey into the soul's mystery!"

What People Are Saying...

"In such a short time, and through our words on the phone, this magical being led me into lands I've never travelled before. Her deep wisdom and amazing insight gently but brilliantly guided me to the portal between this world and the next ... gifting me with gifts I was then able to gift to others. She is truly a treasure on this planet at this time."
P.K. Gateway Mentor, Trinidad, CA USA

"This work is about discovering and deepening our soul truth as it is manifesting here in the world... going to a deeper level of knowing and guidance to bring that forth..."
D. D. Intl. Opera Singer, Toronto, ON

"Through an immediate awareness of the Divine Presence enveloping me – my vibration was elevated to become and experience my Higher Self. Through this consciousness, I quickly absorbed this higher vibration that was revealing and I received a spiritual healing. I felt a sense of peace, very radiant, and blessed for days to come!"
S.R. Kundalini Yoga Teacher, Oakville, ON

A great asset in my healing process—you're easy to talk to and you listen with such Grace and Presence: very talented at helping me find the areas of my body that need attention and gently release the trapped remnants of the past. I highly recommend her as a Guide/Healer to work with—just the beautiful voice she possesses is very soothing and comforting, and her sincerity and talent is bountiful.
S.G. Arthur, IL USA

"I experienced shifts in my body where my cells dance and long familiar 'stuckness' moves out and momentum continues for weeks. Working with you has made me a whole new person. Your skill and gifted, loving 'knowing' has freed me up and I feel a new energy and enthusiasm for life. My gratitude is immense." KAS, Clear Connections, Toronto, ON

"Hualani is a truly gifted guide and healer. Her power to release blockages and help one tune to essence transcends time and space. I worked with her via phone and can attest to the significant and profound shifts that took place in my body and energy field. It was amazing and I'm truly grateful to have found her love and wisdom." S.T.—BLY, Ajax, ON
